

University of Instruction Course Competencies

Joint Courses

OES Individualized Courses

OES 1100: Constitution and Bylaws

Upon completion of this course, University participants should be able to:

1. Recall basic principles, rules, and guidelines regarding the Jerusalem Grand Chapter's Constitution and Bylaws
2. Devise an acceptable method by which local bylaws may be established or altered.
3. Participate in group presentations or masonic educational cases to highlight the importance of the aforementioned competencies.
4. Take a summative exam to assess competency comprehension.