

University of Instruction Course Competencies

Joint Courses

PHA 1102: Masonic Protocol.

Upon completion of this course, University participants should be able to:

1. Establish a protocol when department heads are present for a function.
2. Establish the lineup for St. John's and Prince Hall days.
3. Recognize standard dates for festive days.
4. Establish the lineup for funeral rites.
5. Establish a seating arrangement for dignitaries, regardless of a podium position.
6. Build a general program for a locally sponsored event according to protocol.
7. Recall appropriate masonic dress in various settings.
8. Distinguish between public and private grand honors.
1. Participate in group presentations or masonic educational cases to highlight the importance of the aforementioned competencies.
9. Take a summative exam to assess competency comprehension.